Former President John Dramani Mahama has thrown salvos at President Akufo-Addo over his 'I don't respond presidential aspirants' comments. Mr Mahama in his address to delegates at the 9th National Delegates Congress of the National Democratic Congress said, he is a citizen and not a spectator hence he will continue to slam his (Nana's) administration over his incompetence, mismanagement and untold hardship he has brought on citizens. He also took on the NPP for paying lip service towards the fight against corruption and accused President Akufo-Addo of cleaning his appointees of corruption. Ghanaians he lamented are encountering unprecedented level of nepotism, family and friends and cronies system of governance. He touched on high level of insecurity, economic hardship and incompetence. Mr Mahama said, the president can choose to listen to the concerns being raised or not but he should remember that citizens will continue to demand for accountability. He admonished delegates to vote for competent individuals who will help the party unite and win power in 2020.
